Another successful Cultural Festival has come to an end with thousands of guests having enjoyed our African hospitality.

The African Cultural Festival, is a festival that does not only promote the rich and diverse cultural exchange between Greece and the African countries, but it also pledges our solidarity to children in need. These are the reasons which motivate us to commit ourselves to work relentlessly in advancing the annual African Festival.

On behalf of myself and the African Group of Ambassadors, I wish to extend my heartfelt appreciation to you and your company for sponsoring the 19th African Cultural Festival.

It is with your assistance and partnership that we once again, achieved our objective.

Yours sincerely,
